

Flying Cows Gain Another Road Win

Friday, May 25th, 2024
Winchester, VA

The Frederick Flying Cows travel down to Virginia Valley for their second game of the weekend. Mustapha Traore started the game off for the Flying Cows with a 2-point jump shot 12 seconds into the game.

The Flying Cows had a slow start after Traore's jump shot. Battling for the lead throughout the first quarter, Tavares Sledge grabs the lead with 1:04 left in the quarter. With the help from Charlie Marquardt, the Flying Cows lead 53-42 at halftime.

In the second half of the game, the Frederick Flying Cows maintained their lead. With 5 minutes left in the game, Tevin Foster got it to a 3 digit game. Tavares Sledge finishes out the game by making 2 out of 2 free throws and Quentin Scott maintaining possession.

The Flying Cows win against the Virginia Valley Vipers 106-84!
