Frederick Flying Cows Announce 2025 Season Schedule: New Rivals, Familiar Foes, and Non-Stop Action

This season delivers electrifying basketball, giving fans plenty of chances to support their team from February to May.

Friday, January 10, 2025
Frederick, MD

The Frederick Flying Cows are set to kick off their highly anticipated 2025 season, with a schedule packed full of electrifying matchups, fierce rivalries, and prime opportunities for fans to witness top-tier basketball at Woodsboro Bank Arena. Running from February through May, this season promises intense competition as the Flying Cows square off against both familiar opponents and fresh faces while striving for dominance in the Mid-Atlantic Division of the Eastern Conference.

The season commences at home on Friday, February 28th, with a highly anticipated clash against the Capital Seahawks, a new divisional adversary out of the Washington DC suburbs. Expect high-energy action as Frederick launches its 2025 campaign with a packed arena and an eager fanbase ready to cheer the team on.

The schedule is highlighted by heated divisional matchups, including six games against the Capital Seahawks, as well as contests against the Jersey Shore Breaks and five thrilling showdowns with the Virginia Valley Vipers. These matchups are bound to deliver unforgettable moments as the teams battle for playoff positioning in a fiercely competitive division.

With a full slate of games every weekend and select weekday matchups, Flying Cows fans have plenty of chances to catch the action live, whether cheering from the stands or watching remotely via livestream. Now is the perfect time to secure your tickets for the 2025 season. Single-game tickets, along with season passes and multi-game bundles, are now available for purchase.
